FIRE RAGING IN A MINE

Fifty Men Cut Off From the Mouth of the Pit.

BUT ALL ESCAPE EXCEPT FOUR.

Many of Those That Escaped Were Prostrated, but It Is Believed That All Will Recover—The Fire Thought to Be the Work of Incendiaries—Names of the Victims.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 21.—Fire broke out in the May Lee coal mine, 10 miles from here, yesterday, cutting off 50 men from escape, who were working in the rear part of the mine. The imprisoned men made a dash for the opening, rushing through fire, smoke and flames. Four of the number were taken out dead. Their names are: John Whalen, superintendent of the mine; G. W. Baskins, William McKenzie and an unknown white man.

When it was known that the mine was on fire the 50 men who were imprisoned began making efforts to escape. The greater part of them were loaded into the trams, which were drawn through the flames and smoke by means of wire cables as rapidly as possible. Others took their chances in making a dash through the smoke. Some got out alive, while others were less fortunate and fell victims to the smoke and fire. Among the latter was Superintendent Whalen, who was prostrated and died just as he was brought out.

The work of rescue went on for several hours, and by dark every man who was alive had been taken out of the mines. Many of those brought out in the trams were suffocated, as the cars had, of necessity, to be drawn right through the smoke that filled the mine.

A number of physicians were at the mouth of the pit, as was also the entire population of the town of Lewisburg. Mothers, wives and children were wild with grief, and it was with the greatest difficulty that they were restrained from dashing into the burning mine in an effort to rescue their loved ones.

As rapidly as the suffocated miners were brought out they were taken in hand by physicians and efforts made to revive them. Four died from suffocation. The others who were prostrated will, it is thought, recover.

It is believed that all the men have been accounted for, though later investigation may show further fatalities.

The owners of the mine are positive that it was set on fire. This mine has recently started up with new labor, having been closed down previous to that on account of the strike. There is no clew as to the incendiaries.

The fire in the mine is still raging at a furious rate. The fire department from Birmingham has been sent to the place, and are now fighting the flames.

The fire began in a lot of refuse coal where no work was being done. It was directly in the mainway, and had not one of the men working in the mine discovered it before it had gained great headway, not one of the 50 miners would have escaped alive. The early discovery of the flames enabled many to escape by running through the smoke. Those working far back in the mine were notified as quickly as possible, but when they arrived at the fire they could not pass it and it was then that they were loaded in trams and drawn through the smoke and flames.

Shot by a Burglar.

FRANKFORT, Ind., June 21.—W. C. Davis attempted to capture a burglar who visited his room at an early hour in the morning, but after a severe fight the thief succeeded in drawing his revolver and shooting Davis twice, inflicting fatal injuries. Mike O'Brien, a tramp, has been arrested on suspicion.

Attempt to Blow Up a House.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 21.—A great sensation was produced here last night by an attempt to blow up the house of George Heitz, a prominent citizen. He reported to the police that a dynamite bomb had been thrown into his yard. The explosion was premature and no damage was done.

Congressmen Plead Guilty.

EX-SENATOR PERKINS DEAD.
He Represented Kansas For Two Years,
Returning in 1893.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Hon. Bishop Perkins, ex-United States senator and for years a representative from Kansas, died suddenly at his home in this city yesterday afternoon. His death was due to cholera morbus, contracted in the Indian Territory a few days ago. He leaves a wife, two daughters and a son, all of whom were present at the death bed.

BISHOP W. PERKINS.

A week ago he returned to Washington from Kansas, and since then has been suffering from bowel trouble, but until Tuesday night steadfastly refused to call a physician. During the night he became worse, and Dr. Brumbaugh, the family physician, was called in. He pronounced the attack cholera morbus. The ex-senator passed a quiet night. No serious alarm was felt during the day until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the symptoms grew much worse. Doctors Sowers and Balloch were hastily summoned. Their efforts to afford relief proved futile. He sank rapidly and at 4 o'clock passed away.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral, though the remains probably will be taken for interment to the home of the family in Kansas.

Bishop W. Perkins was born in Rochester, Lorain county, O., Oct. 18, 1841, attended Knox academy at Galesburg, Ills., for some time, studied law, was admitted to practice and located at Ottawa, Ills., in 1867. He had in the meantime passed four years in the Union Army, going out as sergeant in the Eighty-third Illinois infantry and serving about two years as captain in the Sixteenth United States colored infantry.

He was elected probate judge of Labette county, Kan., in 1870 and 1872; became district judge in 1873 and held that office nine years. He was elected to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth and Fifty-first congresses as a Republican, but went under in the "Alliance deluge" of 1890. He was promoted to the senate by Governor Humphreys of Kansas in 1891 to succeed the late Senator Plumb, and served until 1893.

Mr. Perkins was a ready speaker and an able parliamentarian. While a member of the house he was often chosen to fill the chair in the absence of Speaker Reed. Since his retirement from the senate in March, 1893, he had been engaged in the practice of law in this city, being associated with ex-Assistant Secretary of the Interior Chandler in the prosecution of Indian depredation claims before the interior department. Ex-Senator Perkins would have been a prominent candidate for the senate to succeed Senator Martin at the expiration of his term in March, 1895.

CORBETT AND FITZSIMMONS.

They Will Probably Fight in New Orleans Next December.

NEW YORK, June 21.—It is possible that James J. Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons will fight in New Orleans for $20,000 and the championship of the world. A New York sporting paper received yesterday a request from the Auditorium club of New Orleans to arrange a match between Fitzsimmons and Corbett, to fight before that club in December next. The club guaranteed a purse of $20,000, and offered to deposit that amount.

The substance of this offer with the added statement that Fitzsimmons was eager to fight was cabled to the editor of The Sporting Life of London, who was asked to cable Corbett's reply.

ST. LOUIS, June 21.—Jockey Gorman was thrown in the sixth race at the fair grounds yesterday and fatally injured. Sullivan, the horse which threw him, finished second. He caught his foot and fell 100 feet beyond the wire.

Afraid of Hogan's Army.

PIERRE, S. D., June 21.—The city is in a state of great excitement, expecting Hogan's army, which is now about 60 miles above here. Mayor Owen has sworn in 150 special police and armed them with rifles.

Plowboy Slain by a Thunderbolt.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., June 21.—Roy Bogard, aged 20, was killed by lightning, while plowing corn. Three men and four horses in the same field were severely stunned, but will recover.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 21.—The Republican state convention was held here yesterday, and G. A. Woodbury was chosen as candidate for governor and L. Mansur for lieutenant governor.

Boy Fatally Shot.

COLUMBUS, O., June 21.—Roy Wooley, a 13-year-old boy, was fatally shot while firing pistols at a target with a companion.

INCOME TAX REACHED

Rapid Progress Made by the Senate on the Tariff Bill.

ONLY 61 PAGES YET REMAIN.

The Income Tax and the Internal Revenue Features Are the Only Ones to Be Considered—Amendments Offered to the Income Tax—Proceedings of Both the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Very rapid progress was made on the tariff bill yesterday. The income tax on Page 170 had been reached when the senate adjourned. Only 61 pages of the bill, the income tax and internal revenue features, remain undisposed of, and the end of the long debate seems close at hand. The remaining features of the free list were completed yesterday without friction, both sugar and wool, the great controversial items, contrary to expectation, not giving rise to debate. A yeas and nays vote was demanded on striking sugar from the free list, while the final struggle on free wool was postponed until the bill should be reported to the senate.

The administrative features of the bill (Sections 23 to 48 inclusive) were stricken out, as Mr. Jones explained, in order to facilitate the passage of the bill. If it was deemed advisable later to enact the proposed administrative sections, it could be done in a separate bill, he added. Mr. Allison intimated that it was the wish of the secretary of the treasury to place the new tariff bill in force under the operation of the present administrative law and if defects were found to correct them later on. The contest over the income tax, which promises to be extremely interesting, if not sensational, will begin at once. It is the general expectation that it will occupy at least two days.

Mr. Peffer gave notice of his intention to offer an amendment to graduate the income tax so as to make incomes in excess of $1,000 and below $10,000 subject to a tax of 1 per cent; between $10,000 and $25,000 2 per cent; between $25,000 and $50,000 3 per cent; between $50,000 and $100,000 4 per cent; above $100,000 5 per cent.

At 4:10 the senate went into executive session, and at 4:18 adjourned.

INCOME TAX AMENDMENTS.

A Few Changes Proposed by the Senate Finance Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—Senator Vest yesterday introduced the amendments which he announced heretofore would be offered by the finance committee to the income tax provisions before that part of the tariff bill was reached.

The first of the amendments provides that mutual life insurance companies shall not be required to pay an income tax upon the sums repaid to their policy holder as dividends or interest upon the surplus premiums held by such companies.

The provisions regarding the building and loan associations is changed to read as follows: "That nothing herein contained shall apply to loans made by building and loan associations to their shareholders for the purpose of enabling them to provide for themselves homes."

It is also by the amendments made the duty of persons acting as trustees for estates or trusts to render returns upon them when the incomes annually exceed $3,500.

Another amendment requires the internal revenue commissioner to prescribe the form of the affirmation or oath required from the president or chief officer of a corporation or company in giving the net proceeds of his company. In the paragraph relating to these returns by corporations there is a change which provides a penalty for refusing to make returns instead of for refusing to pay the penalties, which is evidently the correction of an inconsistency in the former print.

Another amendment exempts fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations operating upon the lodge system and which provide for the payment of life, sick, accident and other benefits to the members of such societies and their dependents, from the operations of the law.

An exemption is also made in the case of such saving banks, saving institutions or societies as have no stockholders or members except depositors and no capital except deposits; those that shall not receive deposits to an aggregate amount in any one year of more than $1,000 from the same depositor; those that shall not allow an accumulation or total of deposits by any one depositor exceeding $10,000; those that shall actually divide and distribute to their depositors, ratably to deposits, all the earnings over the necessary and proper expenses of such bank, institution or society, except such as shall be applied to surplus; and also those who shall not possess in any form a surplus fund exceeding 10 per cent of the aggregate deposits.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The anti-option bill occupied the attention of the house all day, and an agreement was made that debate should close at adjournment today, and a vote be taken on the bill Friday morning after the morning hour. Speeches were made against the bill by Representatives Goldzier, Democrat; Walker, Republican, and Harter, Democrat, while Mr. Richardson (Dem., Mich.) spoke in favor of it.

The speaker was still confined to his room by sickness, Mr. Bailey performing the duties of speaker pro tem.

GENERAL KELLY IN LOUISVILLE.
His Army Quarantined Two Miles Below the City.

LOUISVILLE, June 21.—General Kelly and his troops went into camp at 1 o'clock two miles below New Albany, where they were stopped by Chief of Police Cannon of New Albany. Chief Cannon told Kelly the men could not enter New Albany. Kelly seemed but little concerned over the situation, and says if his men are quarantined New Albany must feed them. It is probable that arrangements will be made to load the gang on barges and have them towed through the canal as far as Madison, Ind., 50 miles up the river.

A committee from the trades and labor assembly of Louisville waited upon General Kelly and extended him an invitation to address a mass meeting at National park, which he accepted. It is not thought that the authorities will offer any objection to Kelly's speaking here.

RAILROAD INJUNCTION CASES.

The Mackey System Must Pay Its Indiana Taxes.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 21.—The supreme court yesterday disposed of the tax cases growing out of the injunction suits brought by the railroads constituting the Mackey system. In all four cases were decided. The court holds that all questions as to the constitutionality of the tax law of 1891 have been passed up by the Indiana supreme court and the United States supreme court.

It is held by the court that nonpayment in April carries into delinquency the whole tax, to which is added a penalty of 10 per cent, if such taxes are unpaid, both are still delinquent in November, and an additional burden of 6 per cent is added. It is held that if the April installment is paid and the November installment is allowed to go delinquent, only 6 per cent can be added.

REBEL PRESIDENT SHOT.

The New York Herald's Buenos Ayres Special Dispatches.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Herald's Buenos Ayres dispatch says:

Senor Lorena, president of the provisional government in Santa Catharina Brazil, has been shot, it is reported, by order of General Gumerendo Saravia, who took him prisoner recently.

The other rebel leaders have joined forces at Cruz Alta, in Rio Grande do Sul, with a view of having a decisive battle with the government forces. The contract for improvements in the port of Montevideo, Uruguay, will probably be given to a United States syndicate.

Upald Laborers Making Trouble.

WABASH, Ind., June 21.—There is trouble on the new grade of the Cincinnati, Union and Chicago road, now in course of construction between Union City and Huntington. A large number of laborers, who claim that they have not been paid for six weeks, besieged the contractors, who distributed all the money they had, amounting to several thousand dollars, but it failed to go around and considerable bad blood was engendered among the men. The road is now being built by subsidies largely, and the funds are not always available when needed. The contractors have promised to have enough money to pay most of the claims this week.

National Convention of Young People.

ELKHART, Ind., June 21.—Delegates from all parts of the United States, especially distant points, such as Washington, Idaho, California, Iowa, Colorado and Canada, are coming in on every train, to attend the national convention of the United Brethren Young People's Christian union, which convenes here and lasts over Sunday. Bishops Mills of Toledo, Knephart of Baltimore, Weaver of Dayton, O., and Hutt of Cedar Rapids, Ia., arrived yesterday afternoon. Over 1,500 delegates will be in attendance.

Lookout for a Sensation.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 21.—Consul Gibson of Guayaquil has reported to Secretary Gresham the story that two Americans had been killed and eaten by cannibals on Tiburon island, Lower California. Secretary Gresham has asked the Mexican government to punish the Ceris Indians. It is believed here that one of the men, who is a newspaper correspondent, will reappear with a sensation for his paper. Nevertheless, Mexican troops will thoroughly investigate affairs.

Desperate Negro.

FULTON, Ark., June 21.—A negro of desperate reputation named Gus Simmons, wanted upon some previous charges, has shot two other negroes, Calvin McCormick and Sam Stewart, killing the latter and mortally wounding the former. Simmons was passing a house in which McCormick and Stewart were visiting, and, being hailed by them, thought it was for the purpose of arrest and immediately commenced shooting.

A Peculiar Explosion.

HOPEDALE, Ind., June 21.—Yesterday Mrs. George D. Weinland threw an empty box that had contained dynamite sticks on a bonfire in the street. It exploded almost instantly, giving her a severe nervous shock. The theory is that the box, having been kept in a damp place, had become soaked with nitro-glycerine.

"IT'S SO, IF YOU SEE IT IN THE LEDGER."

The BULLETIN published an item Tuesday stating that a colored roustabout, Andy Johnson was his name, fell off the steamer Henry M. Stanley Monday as the boat was leaving Springdale, and was drowned.

The Public Ledger stated that a storm struck the boat and blew the swinging stage plank against the unfortunate, knocking him overboard.

The Maysville correspondent of the Cincinnati Post said the man was actually blown overboard by the fierce gale.

The river editors of two Cincinnati papers stated that Jackson fell overboard while carrying some freight on the boat.

Here are four different accounts of this accident. Which is correct?

In the first place the BULLETIN's information is that the storm that struck the Stanley didn't strike her at Springdale, but at Wrightsville, several miles above Manchester; and as Jackson was drowned at Springdale, the said wind storm didn't have anything to do with the case notwithstanding the P. L. and the Post correspondent to the contrary.

Again our information is that the boat was forty or fifty yards out in the stream when the accident occurred, so the man couldn't have fallen overboard while carrying freight on the steamer, as stated by the Cincinnati papers.

The BULLETIN's account of the drowning was obtained from a gentleman who lives at Springdale and we believe it was the correct one.

THE MCKINLEY TARIFF AND THE SUGAR TRUST.

Senator Brice was before the Senate Investigating Committee last week and told what he knew of the sugar schedule of the Democratic tariff bill. He also gave some interesting information as to the McKinley tariff on sugar, and its effect on the stock of the trust.

Mr. Brice said that he had watched the fluctuations in sugar stock during the pendency of the McKinley bill in the committee and immediately after its passage in 1890. At that time, he said, the sugar trust, with a capitalization of $50,000,000, was dealt in very largely from and after February 20, 1889, more than a year and a half before the enactment of the McKinley act. In January, 1890, he said, the stock of this corporation was quoted at 50 cents on the dollar. This was while the McKinley bill was pending in the House. The dealings in this stock at that time, he said, were enormous, the fluctuations violent and great and continuous while the law was taking shape. The bill passed the House April, 1890, and Mr. Brice said that in May, when it was understood what the Senate Committee would do, the price had gone up to 95, an advance of 45 per cent. since January, equal to $22,500,000 on the then capital, or $33,500,000, if the $25,000,000 of the Spreckles-Harrison and Knight refineries, which were taken in at that figure, were taken into account. The Baring failure, Mr. Brice said, reduced the value of this stock, but it eventually went up to 135 per cent.

POTTERS ASK FOR FREE TRADE.

A blow in the face could hardly have given the members of Senator Vilas's hard times' investigating committee a greater shock than did the demand for absolute free trade in pottery, which was made by a delegation of striking Trenton pottery workers who appeared before the committee, says the Pittsburgh Post. To Senator Allison and other Republican members of the committee the plea of the pottery workers was a painful surprise, because they, of course, expected the men would demand higher protection, and impute their distress to the Wilson bill.

Instead of this the potters declared that before the present tariff agitation began, or at least before the Wilson bill was an issue, their wages had been cut 25 per cent. by their employers, making it impossible for them to earn as much by from 5 to 15 per cent. as was paid for the same class of work in England. They denounced the manufacturers' plea that high protective duties were for the benefit of the workmen as a fraud and sham, as they said that whatever benefit protection gave was bagged by the employers, and the employees got none of it.

Therefore they urge the committee to take off all duties on pottery and place it on the free list.

The Post adds that the delegation gave some astonishing figures to show the extent of the wages which the manufacturers proposed to them. They said that before the first cut workmen who made toilet sets received $22.30 a week, out of which they had to pay their helpers. Under the scale proposed after the second cut these workmen, after paying their helpers at the old rate, would not only have nothing left for themselves, but would actually come out at the end of the week nearly $2 in debt.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONTEST.

The Carlisle Mercury's Comments on the Action of the Nicholas Delegation.

[Carlisle Mercury.]

There were but four ballots taken in the Republican convention at Augusta last week. Nicholas County's instructed delegates obeyed instructions once and violated them three times. If a Democratic delegation should do a thing like that it would be eternally and politically damned. The delegates were so much smarter than the county convention, or their opportunities for light were greater, perhaps!

Oh! Pugh! Pugh!
Who'd have thought it of you?
To ruin for evermore,
Our beautiful lour!

They say that when the Nicholas County delegation saw Judge Pugh's barrel that they became as unruly as an ox team in August when it comes in sight of water.

Who violated instructions at the Augusta convention? "I did it with my little hatchet," said the master mind of the Nicholas County Republicans. "When I saw the head of that barrel I just had to make for it, and you bet I will see that it is kept open, too."

The outside world should know that the Chairman of the Nicholas County Republican convention used a hatchet for a gavel, and that the supposition is he carried it to Augusta with him for the double purpose of breaking instructions and knocking in the head of Thomas' barrel.

Another Defeat For the Regulars.

The Regulars were again defeated by the Paris team yesterday. The score this time stood 10 to 5. The Bourbon team has seven salaried players, and might be classed as professionals. And judging from the Kentuckian's account of the first game, the Bourbons were helped out materially by their umpire. The Kentuckian says the Maysville boys did fair playing, and that their "little pitcher did good work for one of his size and weight." Following was the score of the first game:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Paris.....0 2 0 0 1 3 0 2 0 8

The Kentuckian admits that the umpire may have made some unfair decisions, but adds that "he did not make them intentionally."

It turns out that the umpire in the first game is a director of the Paris club. No wonder the Regulars lost.

Yesterday's game was played in the rain.

The Paris team will come down Tuesday week, for two return games.

WEEKLY CROP REPORT.

The Weather Bureau Reports a Decided Improvement, Despite the Intense Heat.

Despite the intense heat, excessive sunshine and almost total absence of rainfall previous to Sunday, the great majority of correspondents report a decided improvement in most crops during the past week. Clear weather generally prevailed and the temperature was largely in excess of the normal. Only a few light showers fell previous to Saturday night, when a belt of thunder storms entered the State and continued throughout Sunday and Monday. It is probable that few sections of Kentucky escaped these heavy showers, and reports received indicate that from one-half to one inch of rain fell in various parts of the State, the western and southern counties appearing to have received the most. These showers will materially enhance the prospects for all crops, some of which have been suffering severely for rain.

The wheat harvest is under full headway in the western and central sections of the State, and will probably be completed there during the present week. In other portions the grain is ripening very rapidly and will be ready to cut this week. As indicated in previous reports the damage from snow and cold is now shown to have been greatly exaggerated. It is true that in some few isolated localities a shortage exists, but the general tenor of this week's reports is very favorable, and many of them state that more than an average crop is being harvested. The heads have filled out well and the grain is reported to be of a uniformly good quality.

Corn has made very rapid progress during the week, and from all sections the most favorable reports of it are being received. The warm weather and abundant sunshine have stimulated its growth and restored it to a healthy color, and its condition is now probably very near the average for the season. The conditions have been favorable to its thorough cultivation, and the general prospect for at the present time is very bright.

The weather conditions have not been so favorable to tobacco, and correspondents state that the outlook for the crop is gloomy at the present time in most parts of the State. But little was planted during the week, so that fully one quarter of the plants are still unset, and many of those in the fields have died on the hill. The complaints of injury from lack of rain are general throughout the State, though it is probable that the showers of the past forty-eight hours have brightened the prospects somewhat. At present, the crop is considerably behind the season.

Pastures, meadows and grasses have also suffered from absence of rain, and are, generally speaking, in poor condition.

Oats are short, but are reported to be of good quality.

Gardens have improved somewhat, but need rain. Late potatoes promise a good yield, but the early crop is a little short.

The outlook for fruits has not improved. The crop of raspberries promises fairly well, and grapes are looking better.

The first order to be filled was for three hundred barrels of its noted "Silver Edge" brand. Success to the boys.

BARBAROUS TREATMENT.

Horrible State of Affairs Existing in the Indian Territory.
FORT SMITH, Ark., June 21.—Details of a horrible state of affairs existing in the mining region of the Indian Territory have been brought to this city by evicted miners, a number of whom arrived yesterday. The stories the men tell of oppression, hardship and cruelty to themselves, their wives and children by the deputy marshals and federal troops, are similar to those which sometimes come from Siberia. The men say that when it became apparent that they could not earn a living at the reduced rate of wages and starvation staring them and their families in the face, power was given the deputy marshals to eject them from the company's houses, and the work of eviction began.

Many of the men were thrown bodily from their homes, their wives and children beaten and bruised and their furniture and personal effects destroyed, after which they were loaded into boxes like cattle and shipped out of the territory.

The stories of brutality told by the men from the Hartshorne district are revolting in the extreme. August Smith, one of the Hartshorne miners, says that last Thursday troops came at his house and arrested him. They would not allow him to put on his shoes and coat and refused to let the family eat breakfast. The soldiers threw his furniture into a wagon and then asked Smith's wife if she wanted to go.

"No," she said, "I have worked for this home, and if I leave you will have to shoot me."

"The house was built by me and belonged to me," says Smith, "though I had no legal title to it. The commander ordered the privates to put my wife and five children out. They jumped at her, one of them pulling a knife, and took the baby from her breast. Then four or five took her and dragged her and threw her headfirst into the wagon. We were then carted to the station and put in a boxcar."

Dozens of other similar stories are told. Most of the miners and families were thrown out early in the morning in a driving rain and no time given them to dress or eat breakfast. In one instance, a family of four were evicted near Anderson. The wife of the evicted miner was struck over the head with a Winchester and severely maltreated by the soldiers. The woman was enciente at the time and while being carted to the railroad station gave premature birth to a dead child. The mother is in a critical condition and may not recover.

PRENDERGAST'S BRAIN PAN.

Its Condition the Subject of Legal Inquiry Once More.

CHICAGO, June 21.—Assassin Prendergast was taken before the bar of the criminal court again yesterday to be tried for insanity. Proceedings began before Judge Payne with arguments on the question of the venue.

The state, represented by Attorney Morrison, asked a special venue, arguing that the trial was not strictly criminal. For the defense the argument was made that the regular venue should be exhausted before a special one was snuffed.

After lengthy arguments Judge Paine decided that the regular venue should be exhausted, after which a special would be ordered. The work of securing a jury was then begun. Prendergast, who was present, made one of his rambling speeches, and asked the court to dispense with a jury. He objected to his counsel, and said he had authorized no one to represent him.

The afternoon was spent in the examination of veniremen, and when court adjourned two jurors had been secured and a third had been accepted by the state, but has not been examined by the defense.
